FOUR SEASONS VILLAGE

The Four Seasons residential park is nestled near the village of Winkleigh in the heart of Devon, between Exmoor and Dartmoor, the village of Winkleigh is home to less than 1500 people.

The village has a long history, mentioned in the Domesday Book in 1086 and has braved many hardships, including the Black Death in the 14th Century. Approximately 20 miles from Barnstaple, 12 miles from Okehampton and 22 miles from Exeter. A regular bus service runs from the park.

- Plot Sizes available 40 x 20 up to 56 x 22
- Large luxurious plots with remote controlled garage doors
- Gas and electric water individual meter to your property
- Storage available for Motor homes and touring caravans
- Luxury items for storing on site
- Club house available for residents

The park is within half a mile of the local village which has all the added benefits of a post office, doctors and two churches. And if you are looking to take up a hobby in the area there is a large trout fishing lake, two golf clubs and an excellent bowls and cricket club.

Each home retains it's own individual character, modestly spaced apart and positioned at angles to achieve maximum space. Adjacent to each home is a paved driveway to the garage and a path to the front door.

All the developments are mid to highend luxury park homes with 2 double bedrooms, fitted kitchens, utility room, Ensuite Shower or bathrooms. Some homes feature a study. We, personally, have a home with a built in sun room!

Buying a park home allows you to enjoy your retirement in a beautiful property in a safe and secure environment.

You can choose from one of our available plots with a home already situated on site, or the opportunity to design your very own bespoke dream home, with the help and advice from our expert team.

Four Seasons is currently in its second phase of development with 40 new park homes/plots available.

GREENACRES PARK

Sorry, no pets!

Nestling in 7 1/2 acres of 'Green Belt' land, with mature trees as a backdrop, are 84 homes with varying makes and sizes.

This, the 'Jewel in the Crown' of Gloucestershire Park Homes is approximately 7 miles from Bristol and 3 miles from Yate, with two golf courses, a fishing lake, two cricket clubs, all nearby together with plentiful country walks.

Conveniently, a mile or so away, is a collection of small shops as well as a post office and doctors surgery.

Occasionally previously occupied homes become available to purchase within this completed park.

This is a retirement park for the over 50's.

ST JAMES' PARK

A quality development for the over 50's.

St James' Park is within easy reach of Coleford, a small market town in the west of the Forest of Dean, Gloucestershire, two miles east of the Welsh border and close to the Wye Valley.

This is a peaceful retirement park for the over 50's and has 18 'twin' homes together with fine views across the Forest of Dean. Only a mile or so from the Coleford shopping centre. Bus services to Coleford, Monmouth. A bus stop is conveniently located at the park entrance.

All the local amenities are within easy reach. Occasionally previously occupied homes become available to purchase within this completed park.

One small pet dog with the management's agreement is allowed.

COALWAY & BELINDA PARK

Coalway & Belinda Park are just a mile from each other. Both residential retirement parks of 25 homes situated in the beautiful Coalway Village in the West Forest of Dean region in Gloucestershire. The village is just south of the village of Broadwell.

There was a beer house at Coalway by 1841, and this had expanded to three public houses by the late 1870's. The last remaining of these is The Crown Inn, which is within walking distance from the park.

Other local attractions include Coleford Great Western Railway Museum and Puzzlewood where you can enjoy a magical picnic, take a steam train ride on the Dean Forest Railway or head underground to the ancient Clearwell Caves. Or if you are looking to continue or take up a new hobby, the Forest Hills Golf Club is a stone's throw away.

The park has a small supermarket at the entrance of the site, but you can venture into Coleford (approx. 5 mins), A market town situated two miles east of the Welsh border and close to the Wye Valley.

You can access the local regular bus services into Coleford and surrounding areas. The Forest of Dean has hundreds of miles of foot and cycle paths ideal for those gentle stroll or hikers looking for long distance.

Coalway & Belinda Park has new and pre-owned properties available where you can enjoy your retirement in the safe and secured environment still within the beautiful Cotswolds. Unfortunately no pets allowed on this site.
